Coram

For the Petitioner : Mr. Ashok Chaudhary, Additional Advocate General.

For the Respondent : Nemo.

Surjit Singh, Judge (Oral)

Heard and gone through the record.

2. Respondent was sent up for trial for rash or negligent driving of a Maruti Van. The summary of the allegations, which were there against him, is like this. A car was parked at Navbahar Parking which, according to PW-1, the driver of the car, is on the right side of the road. This car entered the road and in the meanwhile the Van appeared there, allegedly at an excessive speed, and rammed into the car on the road. Trial Court has considered the entire evidence and came to the conclusion that probably the car entered the road from the parking without giving proper signal and also without caring for the traffic on the road. The view taken by the trial Court appears to be probable and based on proper appreciation of evidence. Hence, the application for leave to appeal is dismissed.
